

2022 Annual Meeting
Call for Papers
Due January 10, 2022
Extended to January 31, 2022

The Annual Meeting of the American Risk and Insurance Association will be held July 31-August 3, 2022, at the Hyatt Regency Long Beach, California. Papers presented at the annual meeting will mostly include those submitted by individuals. Session chairs are also invited to propose a full session of up to three papers based on a specific topic. ARIA encourages a broad and varied participation thus the highest quality meeting for attendees from a variety of perspectives.

About ARIA: ARIA is devoted to the study and promotion of risk and insurance economics. Our membership is comprised of academics, scholars, professionals and industry veterans who represent a community committed to collaboration among people interested in the study of risk and insurance, and to support the adoption of new findings by the risk management profession. ARIA is dedicated to the expansion and improvement of academic instruction to students of risk management and insurance, and to providing networking opportunities, instructional information and support to risk management and insurance instructors.

Who Should Submit: Academics, doctoral students, government and non-governmental agency personnel, regulators, professionals, and other researchers are encouraged to submit a proposal to present their best research. Papers on any risk or insurance related topics are welcome. Specific subject areas include, but are not limited to the following:

- Accounting
- Actuarial Science
- Big Data/Analytics/Insurtech
- Auto Insurance
- Behavioral insurance
- Catastrophe risk
- Climate Change
- Cyber/Technology
- ERM
- Health
- Insurance economics: adverse selection, moral hazard
- Insurance economics: Utility, agent preferences
- Insurance company operations
- Liability, tort reform
- Life Insurance / Annuities
- Loss Reserves/ Reserving
- Property/casualty (including Workers' Compensation)
- Regulation
- Reinsurance
- Retirement/Long Term Care/Longevity
- Resilience/Sustainability/ESG risks
- RMI education, pedagogy
- Solvency, capital management

What to Submit: Executive summaries (not exceeding three pages) that focus on the purpose, expected results, and importance of the research may be submitted. Completed papers are preferred and complete papers must be submitted closer to the conference date. Proposals from doctoral students are encouraged. The deadline for submission is January 10, 2022.

How to Submit: Proposals must be submitted electronically through the submission portal which will be opened no later than November 5, 2021. The link will be posted on ARIA's website at www.ARIA.org. Documents may be uploaded in either Acrobat (pdf) or Word (.docx) format. Please remove all author information from your paper as this is a double-blind review process. Please check the documents properties for any identifying information before uploading.

Important information regarding paper submission: Papers already accepted for publication should not be submitted. Authors will be notified by email of the program committee's decision regarding their paper on or before early April 2022 and must accept the invitation. In order to appear on the program, at least one author must register and pay the registration fee for the Annual Meeting no later than June 1, 2022. ARIA Member benefits include reduced annual meeting registration rates and access to ARIA Journals, The Journal of Risk and Insurance and the Risk Management and Insurance Review. To join ARIA, please visit www.ARIA.org.

Submission Portal: ProposalSpace.com

This year a new submission portal is being used. Please visit ProposalSpace to learn its features. There is no cost to submit a paper, or to register for a free account at ProposalSpace.com.

Submission Link: <https://proposalspace.com/calls/d/1386>

What you will be asked to provide in the Submission Portal:

1. Title
2. Submitting for an (1) Oral paper presentation, (2) Poster
 - a. If not accepted for Oral paper presentation, would you like to be considered for a poster?
3. Topic area from those listed above
4. Abstract of 200 words or fewer
5. Upload your paper
6. Are you a paid-up ARIA member?
7. Are you Faculty, Industry Professional, Non-Governmental Professional, Governmental Professional, PhD Student, Master's Degree Student, Other
8. Are you willing to be a Discussant?
 - a. If yes, using the same Topic List above, please list up to three topics in which you would be willing to be a discussant
 - b. Would you prefer to be a discussant on an empirical paper, a theoretical paper, or either?
9. Are you willing to be a Moderator?
10. Contact and other information for you as the corresponding author and for each of your co-authors: Name, Organization, Job Title, Email address, Phone number, mobile number preferred

Questions?

- Working with the submission portal and other questions about the Annual Meeting should be directed to the ARIA National Office: +1- 727-940-2658 x 2004, or email: info@ARIA.org
- Program Content Questions: Weili Lu, ARIA VP and Conference Chair, Chair of Finance Department; Director, School of Risk Management and Insurance, College of Business and Economics, California State University Fullerton, Email: conference@ARIA.org

Additional Information

Site Hotel Information

By submitting a proposal, you commit to requesting any travel permissions required upon notice of acceptance. Accepted proposal presenters are expected to (1) register and pay registration fees, and (2) to make your hotel reservations and stay at the site hotel, the Hyatt Regency Long Beach, California. ARIA has negotiated a very favorable rate of $189US plus tax of 16% plus $.39 per night ($219.63) for single or double occupancy. A specific link and hotel number will be provided for you to secure your accommodations at this hotel within the ARIA contracted room block. Please stay at the site hotel to assist ARIA in meeting its contracted obligations which, if achieved, provide complimentary meeting space and work to keep registration fees as low as possible.

NOTE: Final papers must be submitted by June 20, 2022.